

Mass Spec Lab BIPI

Client:

Boehringer Ingelheim
Pharmaceuticals Inc.

Location:

Danbury, CT

Project:

Triple Mass Spectroscopy is a state of the art analysis technique that requires careful design of power systems, vacuum and evac. design, high capacity air conditioning and noise abatement control.

Salem Engineering has provided design for many R&D labs where we have provided full services to the client for these areas.

